

8 November 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT: Monthly Report - Austrian Bureau - October 1983

I. OPERATIONS

Vienna as an East-West crossroads was at the focus of international attention during the weekend of 15-17 October when the Soviet and West German foreign ministers met for extensive discussions of Euromissile and other East-West issues. The bureau's extended coverage and operating hours to monitor Austrian radio and television proved very productive, including much material that was unique and other material that became available ahead of TASS and other news agencies.

II. ADMINISTRATION

A. Personnel

Russian monitor trainee [] a British university graduate STAT who has lived and studied in the USSR, entered on duty at the end of the month. Recruiting is also well in progress to fill the bureau's second Russian monitor position, with promising prospects in both Austria and Israel.

B. Buildings and Grounds

Several strides were taken toward converting the renovated basement to use as the site for main radio. Inside painting was completed, computer flooring installed, a large exhaust fan placed to circulate air through a covered trench as part of the dehumidifying project, and 12 new equipment racks received for relocating main radio.

III. VISITS

Deputy Director [] was given a tour of all aspects of STAT bureau operations on 25 October.

A three-man team from the Systems Development Staff--branch chief [] ex-Austrian Bureau editor [] and contractor STAT [] -- arrived 30 October to spend most of the week becoming STAT familiar with bureau operations in order to define the requirements for bureau automation.

State Department Inspector Walker Diamanti visited the bureau
3 October to review Embassy relations with the bureau and to assess the Embassy's support and responsiveness to our needs.
